Man had 500 child porn images on PC

POLICE found almost 500 indecent images of children on a Haverhill man's computer a court has heard.

Melvyn Joyce admitted a string of child pornography offences when he appeared at Ipswich Crown Court on Monday.

He had been due to go on trial after pleading not guilty to the charges at an earlier hearing. However, in a surprise move following a brief adjournment, Joyce changed his pleas to guilty to a total of 17 offences.

Joyce, 55, of Mallow Walk, Haverhill, spoke only to confirm his name and to enter a plea of guilty as each of the charges was put to him again. He admitted 16 separate offences of making an indecent photograph of a child between January 31 and April 20 last year. He also pleaded guilty to one offence of possession of indecent images of children on April 20.

Prosecutor Michael Crimp told the court that the charge of possession of indecent images involved a total of 477 photographs. All the indecent material came to light when detectives called in an expert to examine the contents of a computer seized from Joyce's home in Haverhill.

Following Joyce's change of plea on 17 counts, a further five charges relating to material allegedly found on his laptop, to which he continued to plead not guilty, will not form part of the prosecution, but will remain on file.

Judge Neil McKittrick agreed to a request from defence barrister Neil Butcher for a pre-sentence report to be prepared by the Probation Service on Joyce, who has no previous convictions. Adjourning sentence until next month, the Judge warned Joyce that all sentencing options would remain open and released him on unconditional bail until his next court appearance.

Judge McKittrick said he wished to thank the police officers involved in the case for the quality of their work which had led to Joyce's prosecution.

Pupils' mosaic to brighten town

THE ancient art of mosaic making has been revived in Haverhill so that it can be included in a public art work at the heart of a major renovation scheme. More than 80 gifted pupils at Samuel Ward Arts and Technology College tried the craft at a special mosaic making workshop. Their efforts are part of an Arts Extended project going on throughout schools in the town this month. Finished mosaics will be used in the £460,000 Jubilee Walk scheme, being undertaken by St Edmundsbury Borough Council, to revamp the bus station, with new paving, seating, bus shelters, an electronic timetable and new landscaping. The area is seen as a key gateway for people arriving in the town and is also a short walk away from the new £9 million five-screen cinema and restaurant complex, being built next to Haverhill Leisure Centre, which is due to open next Easter. Members of the public will also be able to join in the mosaic project when artist Maggie Campbell leads a free workshop on the Market Square in Haverhill on Saturday from 10am to 4pm, or in the Arts Centre if it is wet.

Family day out at Big Bash!

HAIRY gorillas and invisible men will be just part of the fun on offer at Haverhill's annual charity fundraising day, The Big Bash, on Sunday.

This year marks the eighth bash – the original was held to celebrate the centenary of the Recreation Ground in 2000. The day aims to enable local organisations and groups to raise funds and give information about what they do, while a programme of events and entertainment keeps those attending amused.

On the same day, the Haverhill Round Table, in association with the Weekly News, will hold its annual 10-5-1 event, with a 10km road race, a 5km fun run and a 1km family walk, to raise funds for local projects supported by the Round Table.

With events and entertainment from 10am until 5pm, including Haverhill

■ FUN FOR ALL... right, mountain gorillas and an intrepid explorer, along with The Invisible Men, below, will be entertaining crowds at The Big Bash this weekend.

CP.

Silver Band and Colette's Entertainment School, plus more than 20 charity stalls, displays, refreshments and a giant car boot sale, The Big Bash is a fun day out for all the family. Entertainment includes a walkabout by two mountain gorillas and an intrepid explorer, The Invisible Men with their hilarious award-winning show and clay workshops.

Roads will be closed around the Recreation Ground and the High Street between 10.30am and 1pm for the fun run, and there will also be parking restrictions around the Recreation Ground.

It is requested that no cars are on the Recreation Ground for the car boot sale, before 8.30am. Costs are £6 for cars and £10 for vans, payable on the day.

Haverhill Town Council, which organises The Big Bash and funds the entertainment, is hoping for big crowds to support the local groups.

Nick Keeble, arts and leisure manager with the council said: "Awareness of the Bash has grown over the years. We are not trying to recreate the Haverhill Show but to organise a unique event where the key thing is fundraising and fun."

Charity stalls and the car boot sale will start at 10am, with clay workshops from noon to 2pm and 2.30-4.30pm and dancing from Colette's Entertainment School from 12.45-1pm and 2-2.15pm.

The presentations at the end of the 5km and 10km runs will be at 12.15pm and the 1k family walk starts at 1pm. The Invisible Men will be entertaining crowds from 1.15-1.45pm, and 2.30-3pm and Haverhill Silver Band from 3-5pm. There will be gorilla walkabouts at 11.30am and 3.15pm.

'Turn-around' drugs man escapes prison

A MAN who admitted possessing cannabis with intent to supply was handed a suspended jail sentence after a judge heard he had "turned his life around".

Ipswich Crown Court heard that when police raided the home of Bruce Atkins in Snowdon Court, Haverhill, on January 18 last year, he handed over a lump of the drug from his shirt pocket.

Officers discovered traces of cannabis resin on a set of scales, a chopping board and a knife in plastic bags. A list of names was also found and police seized a wallet containing £1,990.

Atkins, 57, had admitted possession of cannabis with intent to supply at an earlier hearing and was appearing in court to be sentenced.

Prosecutor Ian Pells said Atkins initially claimed the cannabis was for his personal use to help relieve arthritis.

Mr Pells said Atkins, who relies on state benefits, told officers he bought nine-ounce batches of cannabis resin, costing between £175 and £189, every six to eight weeks.

Nick Davies, mitigating, said a pre-sentence Probation Service report said Atkins had "turned his life around".

Judge John Holt told Atkins he deserved punishment, "but having read the pre-sentence report and your claim you won't involve yourself in drugs and any criminal activity, I shall put that to the test".

He sentenced Atkins to eight months, suspended for 18 months, and a 12-month supervision order.

Vandals strike

THE front window of a cricket pavilion has been smashed with a brick.

The culprits would have had to climb over a six-foot fence to gain access to the pavilion at Manor Road, Haverhill, when the damage was caused between 11.30pm on Monday and 8.15am the next morning.

Anyone with information about the incident should call PC Richard Baker at the Haverhill South Safer Neighbourhood Team on (01284) 774 100, or Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

Thieves take gates

TWO NEW wooden five-bar gates have been stolen from a track leading to a house at Haverhill.

They were taken from Helions Bumpstead Road, Haverhill, between 12.30am and 8.30am on Sunday.

Anyone with information about this incident should call Sgt Sarah Bartley at the Haverhill South Safer Neighbourhood Team on (01284) 774 100, or Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

Meet the police

SAFER Neighbourhood Teams for Haverhill North and South will be holding a street briefing at Leiston Road, on Saturday from 2pm-4pm.

Members of the teams will be on hand to discuss any issues or concerns in the area.

Radio signal gets a boost

RADIO station Q103 has launched a new FM transmitter for Haverhill, to reach an extra 35,000 potential listeners.

The new transmitter, broadcasting on 97.4 FM, will bring Q103 to people living in and around Haverhill as well as strengthening the station's existing 103 FM and DAB Digital coverage.

Broadcast industry regulators Ofcom gave the go ahead for the new transmitter at Burton End.

James Keen, Q103 programme controller, said: "We're really pleased to be able to launch this additional frequency.

"We have had difficulty reaching Haverhill within the whole of our transmission service area on 103 FM due to the hills surrounding the town.

"The 97.4 FM band will effectively fill in the gaps, giving clear reception to listeners in West Suffolk and North Essex. It will be great to welcome many new listeners to Q103 and to improve the quality of our service to our existing ones."

Going up, down and round about at the Big Day Out

SCHOOL is out and plenty of holiday fun was on offer for families at Haverhill's Big Day Out on Wednesday.

The fun free day out for all ages, on the town's Recreation Ground, offered a wide range of events planned to keep everyone entertained.

The annual Big Day Out is organised by St Edmundsbury Borough Council and Suffolk County Council and supported by a wide range of voluntary and other organisations.

This year's events included a flight simulator, Punch and Judy, plenty of games, quizzes, a football tournament and arts and crafts. There was also a fire engine, face painting, and advice on accident prevention and recycling.

FUN IN EVERY DIRECTION
... young visitors go round about on the tea-cups, top; children climb up a training wall, above; and, tots get to meet PCSOs Alex Foster and Les Scott.

Balloons take off for charity

IT was up, up and away for a group of toddlers who released brightly coloured balloons as part of an airborne charity race.

Around 40 children at the Dizzy's Day Nursery in Hollands Road, Haverhill, took part in the event, which is expected to raise a healthy donation for the Meningitis Research Foundation.

Each child attached a tag with their name on and the phone number of the nursery so that they can see which ones are returned and whose travels the furthest.

The group is hoping to raise more than £170 from the effort.

Woman admits death by dangerous driving

A WOMAN driver involved in the crash which killed stockbroker Alexander Palmer on the M11 has admitted causing his death by her dangerous driving.

At Chelmsford Crown Court, Anne Milton, 46, who is from the Greater London area, also admitted driving without insurance and while disqualified.

The case was adjourned for reports and she will be sentenced on September 3.

Mr Palmer, 36, a devoted father of two from Haverhill Road, Little Wrattling, died in the crash, on the M11 near Littlebury, last August when his Audi car was involved in a collision with a red Vauxhall Frontera 4x4 and a blue Renault Clio.

A 40-year old man was also seriously injured in the crash and a couple in their 20s escaped with minor injuries.

Members of the successful financier's family paid tribute to him at the time and his wife Hilda described him as "a wonderful husband and father". She said: "Alex was a wonderful man - intelligent, funny, clever and hard working, his family was everything to him."

"He lived a full life, he started his career in the City as a runner, passed his Stock Exchange exam on his 18th birthday and continued to enjoy a successful career spanning nearly 20 years in London, New York and Tokyo.

"Alex had a huge circle of friends and colleagues and will be desperately missed by all that knew him."

■ GREATLY MISSED . . . Alexander Palmer.

■ MOVING ON UP . . . four-year-old Elijah Hunte collects his graduation scroll from Elaine McManus. Picture: David Johnson 421651.

Special day for little graduates

TINY TOT graduates said goodbye to their first classroom as they left the Stepping Stones playgroup for the last time.

Coun Les Ager, deputy mayor of Haverhill, went along to the group at Coupals Primary School to hand out scrolls to the mini graduates, and to join in a leavers' party. The entertainment continued on the last morning session, when a fun day was held. A few places are still available at the group for September and anyone interested should contact leader Elaine McManus on (01440) 761 018.

Bollards plan to keep street clear

BOLLARDS could soon be installed in Haverhill town centre to stop drivers parking on the pavement.

Haverhill Town Council's Community First committee has agreed, in principle, to the scheme for the High Street and is willing to contribute towards the cost. Plans are now being drawn up.

A walkabout took place in the town with Kevin Shipp, Suffolk County Council's highways engineer, and Gordon Mussett, Haverhill's town clerk, to look at the problem. Suffolk Police and St Edmundsbury Borough Council's markets manager were also on hand.

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

The bollards idea arose from a meeting of the Suffolk Police Safer Neighbourhoods Team, which agreed that action to enforce the town's pedestrianisation scheme and prevent pavement parking should be a high priority.

Mr Shipp is now set to plot out where bollards could be placed and examine the costs before the team's meets again next month.

Mr Mussett said the town council was in support of the measures, following numerous complaints about people parking on the pavement at all hours. Each bollard costs around £80 and the council would like to see them in place as soon as possible.

Mr Mussett said: "We don't want it to look like Colditz and a fair number will need to be removable so that the market stalls can get in there on a Saturday."

"The council repaved much of the area last year and it is already being broken up because of people parking on the pavement, so the county council is willing to spend some money on it. We are waiting to see what the plan looks like before we go any further."

Mr Shipp said he hoped the first bollards could go in within the current financial year.

Surgery for man after assault

A MAN needed surgery for head injuries after he was attacked in Haverhill on Saturday night.

The 42-year-old man was found by police officers, who were alerted to someone being assaulted in the High Street at 11.30pm.

The victim was taken to Addenbrooke's Hospital in Cambridge where he required surgery for serious head injuries and was unable to be interviewed by police.

His injuries were described by police as "not thought to be life threatening" and a spokesman for the hospital described his condition yesterday as "stable".

Anyone who witnessed the incident or has any information about it should contact Haverhill Police on (01284) 774 100, or contact Crimestoppers, anonymously, on 0800 555 111.

■ Two men were arrested on suspicion of causing grievous bodily harm – a 22-year-old from Haverhill and a 25-year-old from Hundon. Both were released on bail to return to Bury St Edmunds Police Station on August 3.

Police link spate of vehicle break-ins

A SPATE of smashed car windows and thefts from vehicles has been reported to police at Haverhill.

Officers are warning people to remove valuables from their vehicles after four incidents in the town in just three days.

Offenders broke into a blue Peugeot 806, at Buckingham Road, Haverhill, between 8pm on Sunday and 9.15am on Monday, by smashing a window. They made off with a mounting bracket for the car's satellite navigation system.

At Helions Park Gardens, Haverhill, a white Vauxhall Vivaro van was broken into by smashing a window and a drill, two mobile phones and a wallet were stolen between 11pm on Sunday and 8am the next day.

Thieves broke into a red Ford Mondeo at Exeter Court, Haverhill, between 9.30pm on Saturday and 6.45 am on Monday, by smashing a window and stole cash, a ladies jacket and cigarettes. An attempt was also made to remove the CD player.

At Paske Avenue, Haverhill, between 9pm on Sunday and 6.30am on Monday, a silver Nissan Kubistar was broken into by smashing a window but nothing was stolen.

Anyone with information about the incidents, which are being linked by police, should call the Haverhill South Safer Neighbourhood Team on (01284) 774 100 or Crime-stoppers on 0800 555 111.

Choir call

YOUNG voices are invited to join a youth choir being set up to perform with world singers at the 2008 Bury Festival.

The opening ceremony performance by the 380-strong Mbawula Township Choir was one of the highlights of this year's Bury Festival and such was the crowd's enthusiasm it was decided to give more people the chance to take part. Weekly rehearsals will take place on Monday evenings, from September. The choir will have two groups – one for eight to 12-year-olds, to rehearse from 4.45pm to 6pm, and one for nine to 18-year-olds, to practise from 6.15pm to 7.30pm. The cost to join is £10.

Those interested in taking part and able to commit to attending each week, can fill in an online application form from the website www.buryfestival.co.uk or can call (01284) 757 062. Forms must be in by August 10 and membership will be on a first come, first served basis.

Kedington

THE July meeting of the parish council was held at the library. Chairman Coun Terry Wheeler welcomed those present, including parish councillors, county councillor Rev Karen Knight, borough councillor Marion Rushbrook, a Suffolk police officer, Shaun Jarvis of the Village Wildlife Group and members of the Early Birds Playgroup.

Mr Jarvis appealed for helpers in the development of Risbridge Meadow. He also raised an objection to the proposal that wooden gates be erected at the entrances to the village on the grounds that they would be no help in slowing traffic and would only mean an increase in Council Tax.

Coun Rushbrook reported on the borough's new plans to collect old batteries for recycling. Coun Knight reported that the county council was looking at all aspects of social care and a special meeting was to be held in Ipswich on September 19. She invited anyone with special needs to contact her. The schools' reorganisation review had now started with meetings being held in various sites, with public meetings to follow.

Although the borough council had reported that a planning application for a building in the school grounds had been withdrawn, a discussion took place on the proposed building and decisions on the future were held in abeyance. Suffolk police reported on cars being driven on the Silver Street Park, vandalism on the newly constructed play area in School Road, a break-in at the Community Centre and broken glass on the Great Meadow.

An update on the development of the Risbridge Meadow had been received. Dave Bax, of Haverhill Rangers, wrote that timber steps had been constructed leading from Cordwainer Close to the Meadow; two dog waste bins and three rustic benches had been installed and also the access for disabled people. The letter complimented Shaun Jarvis and volunteers from Kedington and Haverhill on the hard and strenuous work they had put in, but added more volunteers would be welcomed.

In her report, the clerk Marion Farrant, said Suffolk County Council had advised that the bridge forming part of the new footway in Mill Road would be put in at the beginning of September, hopefully before the children go back to school. A parishioner had asked if the road leading down from the church and over the Water Mill bridge, could be made a one-way system.

Councillors agreed to look at the idea as this route appeared to be used more and more by buses and heavy lorries and banks alongside the church wall were being demolished. However, this suggestion on a one-way system has been looked at in the past without success.

Chairman of the finance committee, Coun John Cahill, reported on the previous week's finance meeting at which the financial position was reported to be satisfactory. In discussing the asset register, it was decided that Silver Street Park, the youth shelter and Old School field gates should be moved from the heading of infrastructure assets to community assets. The handyman had modified the map boards as instructed. A letter had been received from Mr Eric Chapman to inform the council that for health reasons, he would be unable to cut the grass at Calford Green next season, but hoped to cut the grass until the end of the current season. It was proposed to ask Suffolk County Council to quote for cutting the grass.

It was agreed that council noticeboards and benches should be refurbished.

It was also agreed that a grant of £250 be made to the Community Association to replace the fire door.

■ A meeting of the parish church restoration committee, held at Orchard House, heard a report on fundraising events held over the past four months.

Chairman Daphne Smith welcomed the 11 members present and treasurer Jeanie Smith presented a comprehensive balance sheet of four major events held this year in aid of the restoration fund. Results showed a profit of £502.99 for the winter supper; £508.44 for the summer lunch; £566.75 for the duck race, plus a record of £1,386.82 for the Open Garden Sunday.

Eric and Margaret Chapman were thanked for the use of their barn for the lunch. All those who had opened their gardens on June 24, and those who had provided luncheons, cream teas, cakes etcetera, were also thanked.

Plans for future fundraising included an open air Shakespeare event on August 3, a 100 year history of the village by John Pelling on October 5 and a quiz night on November 16.

RECENT problems in North Street and Lower Road over flooding and raw sewage have been investigated by Anglian Water and the Environment Agency. A sharply-angled drainpipe has been located under the ground which may have to be replaced. The cemetery improvement work is now complete and will provide 100 years of additional use.

Three planning applications have been returned to St. Edmundsbury without objection: 63 Farmerie Road: erection of an extension to the south elevation The Green, Lower North Street: replacement of modern windows with traditional single-glazed timber windows Harrow Croft, Brockley Green: erection of two-storey extension to south and west elevations.

Red letter day for school's 40th year

CHILDREN and teachers were red to celebrate a glittering ruby anniversary with a difference. Clements Primary School in Haverhill was in full party mood as all 175 pupils and their teachers joined in the non uniform day to mark the school's 40th birthday. Lessons were also suspended in favour of a picnic, which had to be held indoors due to wet weather, and a disco. Earlier in the week every child tucked in to a piece of birthday cake which was baked especially for the event by school cook Jackie Jeffery. Olwen Powell, head teacher, said everyone had a lot of fun celebrating the anniversary. She added: "We looked back a lot when we had our 30th anniversary, so we decided to do something different this time as we don't know what might happen in the future, whether the school will be here to celebrate its 50th. "It was a bit disappointing that the parents could not join in the picnic as planned because of the rain, but the children had a lovely time. "We also staged a production of

The Pied Piper for family and friends and rounded off the celebrations on Monday with a blessing of the school by Father Michael Teader."

Tenant joins board of housing directors

A HAVERHILL tenant has joined his landlord's board of directors.

Roger Bolton, 55, has been elected to the board of West Suffolk landlord Havebury Housing Partnership.

He has been a tenant since the organisation took control of 5,900 homes from St Edmundsbury Borough Council in 2002. Mr Bolton joined the tenants' forum in 2003 and became vice chair in 2004, before being elected to the top position in 2005.

He sits with four other forum members on the board and will play a key role managing Havebury's homes.

Roger said: "My role has always been to represent the views of fellow residents. I will be able to expand on this and take opinions straight to the board for discussion. I am looking forward to the challenge."

Hoodies steal moped

EIGHT youths wearing hooded tops were seen stealing a red Honda moped from outside a house in Haverhill.

The moped was taken from Markhams Close at around 2.30am on Sunday and found abandoned nearby a short time later with the steering lock damaged.

Anyone with information about the incident should call Pc Colin Cox at Haverhill Police on (01284) 774100 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

Aimee takes top baby title

AT just 15 months old, Aimee Bayford is already a winner after taking the top title in the baby show at Haverhill Show. More than 80 entries gave judges a hard task in the event, which was organised by Carol Sloane and sponsored by Samuels independent estate agents. As well as winning the overall contest, Aimee was also first in the 12-18 months category. Winners of all categories received a free portrait session and framed photograph, courtesy of The Gallery in Queens Square, Haverhill.

Youths attack boy over bike

AN 11-YEAR-OLD was attacked by three older boys as he rode his bike in Haverhill.

The boy was hit in the back while he rode his bike in Leiston Road at around 6.10pm on Friday, July 13.

Three youths demanded to have a go on his bike and as he tried to ride off one grabbed his T-shirt and punched his back, causing bruising.

The youths are described as male, white and around 13 or 14 years old.

The first had black spiky hair and was wearing a grey track-suit and a grey hooded top, the second was wearing black and blue trousers and the third had big afro-style hair.

Calls in relation to this incident should be made to Pc Andrew Green at Haverhill Police on (01284) 774100 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

Runners warming up for Sunday's run-out

RUNNERS will be limbering up this weekend ready to compete in the Haverhill 10-5-1km run.

The trio of races is an annual event organised by the Haverhill Round Table alongside the Town Council's Big Bash, a day of fun activities and events held on the recreation ground on Camps Road this Sunday (July 29).

Races will begin and finish at the recreation ground starting at 11am. The first race to begin will be the challenging 10km run. Designed for the more serious runner this race is for people aged 15 years and above. Entry is £8 for runners who are a member of a running club and £9 for the public.

The 5km race will begin shortly after at 11.05am and is open to runners aged 13 years and above. Entry is £5 for running club members and £6 for non members.

A trophy presentation will take place at the recreation ground when the two races finish at around 12.30pm before the 1km fancy dress fun run begins. The race is open to everyone what ever your ability and entry is £1.

■ ON THE RUN . . . this year's event will commence at 11.05am this Sunday.

The popular event is now in its eighth year and attracts crowds in the region of 200 people. Organiser Phil Parrot says: "The numbers have stayed steady at around the 200 mark for the last few years. The race started off as a 5km fun run but we've upped the ante to include the 10km run and with this we have attracted even more runners."

Competitors are mainly from the local area but in recent years some runners have travelled to Haverhill from as far as Cornwall and Scotland to take part in the event.

In the past eight years Haverhill Round Table has raised more than £10,000. The money is distributed throughout the year to help the needs of local charities.

To take part in the Haverhill 10-5-1 km run simply fill in the registration form in this weeks Haverhill Weekly News and take it with you on the day to the registration desk on the recreation ground. Runners are asked to complete registration before 10.30pm and there will be extra forms available on the day.

Chalkstone Way, Haverhill, Suffolk

Growing interest in open days

This month we had our first open gardens event in Haverhill.

Seven gardens opened in all with the total of £185.50 raised given to St Nicholas Hospice. With the inclement weather during June it was really good to see the gardens still open with a fine array of interesting items to talk about. The general feeling was that this was the start of an annual event, with more people already thinking about opening their gardens having seen first hand that their own plots were already good enough, and discovering just how rewarding the experience could be.

■ Through July, judging for Best School, Best Town Centre Premises and Best Industrial Frontage has been taking place. Nominations for each will be invited to an awards ceremony, to be held at the Haverhill Golf Club during September, for presenting the various prizes. We wish all the entrants luck in their category.

IN this month's column, Haverhill in Bloom committee chairman Tim Radford looks forward to swapping plants and new ideas at the next gardeners' market in October.

■ Haverhill in Bloom is already planning the second gardeners' market to be held on October 7 at the Haverhill Recreation Ground, with, as always, supporting car boot sale. We have new initiatives in mind for this event which include a plant swap table – simply bring a plant and swap for another at a special table. Ideally we will have a keen gardening expert on hand to answer questions about your plant, and of course about the one you are swapping with.

For this market we are also very interested in a section dedicated to local producers to sell their home produce, perhaps off the allotment or from the garden, preserves made from home fruit and others. Further details about this initiative will be brought to you in August.

■ One final diary note is the floral art competition being staged at the Haverhill Arts Centre on August 11 and 12, with free entry to view the competition entrants from 12.30-5pm on the Saturday, and 10am-4pm on the Sunday. If the standard for the last two years is anything to go by, this should be a very enjoyable spectacle. See article below for more details.

■ Further information about any of these items can be viewed at www.haverhillinbloom.org.uk or by contacting Tim on (01440) 707 922.

Floral art skills put to test

AN award-winning floral club which took part in this year's Chelsea Flower Show will host a two-day floral art competition next month.

Haverhill and District Flower Club is holding its annual event, organised on behalf of the Haverhill in Bloom Committee, at the Arts Centre in the High Street for the first time on August 11 and 12.

Coun Les Ager, deputy town mayor of Haverhill, will cut a ribbon to officially open the contest.

The Haverhill club is approaching its 45th anniversary as part of the Cambridge group of the National Association of Flower Arranging Societies (NAFAS).

Members are celebrating taking part in the Royal Horticultural Society's Chelsea Flower Show for the first time in the club's history and being awarded a bronze medal for its interpretation of Bizet's opera Carmen.

Other guests at the competition will include Janet Elmy, president of the East of England Area Association of NAFAS, Sue Brinton, area chairman, and Sheila Kyte, Cambridge group chairman.

The four classes in the competition are: A Touch of Sunshine, Fantasy, Millinery Extravaganza and Around the World.

There will be a record number of 18 exhibitors staging a total of 32 exhibits, judged by Judy Wynn, a NAFAS accredited judge.

The show is open to the public on Saturday, August 11, from 12.30-5pm and on Sunday, August 12, from 10am to 4pm.

Musical treats for special day

RESIDENTS at a sheltered housing scheme got in the party mood to celebrate its 40th birthday.

The 37 residents of Churchill Close in Clare listened to Haverhill accordion player David Williams before they and their guests enjoyed a tea party, which was laid on by landlord Havebury Housing Partnership.

The event was attended by the scheme's managers Irene Arnould and Sheila Conner, and Havebury chief executive Steve Cook, who helped the residents cut a cake to mark the occasion.

Churchill Close was opened in 1967 by Winston Churchill's granddaughter.

The scheme provides 32 dwellings and has recently undergone a complete lounge and kitchen refurbishment as part of Havebury's improvement programme.

Missing ginger cat

GINGER tom cat George has gone missing from his home at Glemsford Place, Haverhill.

Owner Lesley Paterson said two-year-old George disappeared on July 19 and although he had wandered off before, it had never been for that long.

He is a friendly cat and Lesley thinks he may have lost his collar and is either being fed by someone or has been shut in a shed or garage.

Something new for trend setters

TRENDY youngsters can keep up with the latest fashions in their own town, thanks to a new business offering them something a bit different. Kym Mills opened her newly fitted boutique on Saturday. You'll find Kymmz at the back of the Bottom Drawer underwear shop in Queen Street, which was itself opened, just a year ago, by Vicky Sackett. Kym has worked in the New Look ladies fashion outlet in Haverhill for the past six years, and before that worked in other stores as well as running several pubs. She has a 14-year-old daughter who advises her on what stock to buy and she selects outfits from London as well as America to cater for the 12 to 18 year age group. Kym moved to Haverhill from Portsmouth six years ago, to be nearer her brother after her husband was killed in a car crash.

She said: "I thought Haverhill could do with a bit more variety of shops. "When I was working for New Look there were always people coming in looking for things for that age group. "One morning I just woke up and thought 'I am going to go for it'. "Kids want something a bit different these days and I won't be having 20 or 50 of everything, just a few of each so that they don't see everyone else in the same thing. "A lot of people know me from New Look and hopefully they will know I am genuine and just trying to help people get what they want.

AS part of the Weekly News Buy Local campaign, reporter JO DEEKS talks to Kym Mills, who has just launched a new fashion shop, Kymmz, specially for the 12 to 18 age group.

"I think the Buy Local campaign is a great idea, I always look at it and I think it brings people into the community."

Kym will be able to get hold of styles and sizes that customers request, as well as offering a few larger sized outfits for shoppers.

Kymmz will be open from 9am-5pm on Monday to Saturday.

Nursery celebrates award

STAFF and children at a day nursery are celebrating after receiving a Suffolk Quality Assurance Scheme award from Suffolk County Council.

Dizzy's Day Nursery in Holland Road, Haverhill, has successfully completed the full award, which involved staff preparing a detailed portfolio on how the nursery operates. The scheme encourages staff to improve and develop their skills. It also shows parents and prospective customers the nursery is committed to offering quality care to children and a range of play experiences to encourage individual development.

Abbey Hinton, nursery manager, said: "This is a real achievement, something we all feel very proud of. It has taken a lot of hard work and dedication but now shows we are nationally recognised as a quality provision."

The nursery has been open for five years and caters for up to 40 children aged from three months to five years. For more information, ring (01440) 706246.

Youth games set pace for sporting champions

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

YOUNGSTERS representing their county's sporting future took part in the eighth Suffolk Youth Games.

Around 1,000 young people took part in the games hosted by Abbeycroft Leisure and King Edward VI School in Bury St Edmunds.

The competition in all seven sports was fierce at times, with a huge amount resting on the last final of the day – the basketball competition.

The tension was tangible as the strong host team from St Edmundsbury took on Forest Heath. Victory for St Edmundsbury would have meant them sharing the overall event trophy, in addition to the basketball gold medals.

The sports hall at Bury Leisure Centre was packed with an animated crowd who finally saw Forest Heath emerging as the winning team of the day despite an heroic effort from the youngsters in the blue of St Edmundsbury.

■ TEAM SPIRIT ... the St Edmundsbury team who missed the top spot by just one point.

CP

At the start of the day, the Mayor of St Edmundsbury, Coun Margaret Charlesworth, declared the games officially open as green and white balloons were released in celebration.

Waveney emerged as the Suffolk Youth Games champions for the third consecutive year, although St Edmundsbury ran them close and missed out on top spot by the narrowest of margins – one point.

This fantastic performance from St Edmundsbury was based upon success in all events, especially the athletics and the girls' cricket in which the gold medals went to the teams representing St Edmundsbury.

This was followed by silver in the basketball and a couple of bronze medals in the disability events, swimming and athletics.

Sporting champion, Goldie Sayers, taking time out from her worldwide schedule, was a hit with participants and spectators as the British Athletics Team captain was at the event to inspire competitors and present medals.

DIANA A PRINCESS REMEMBERED

For a limited time this year, KENSINGTON PALACE is hosting a Commemorative Exhibition marking Diana's life as a Princess, Mother, Fashion Icon and Humanitarian. It features over 200 photographs alongside memorable film footage of one of the world's most famous and admired women.

It is an audiovisual exhibition drawing on memorable moments of the shy teenage girl who captured the hearts around the world and then as a blushing bride, it follows her growth into a sophisticated princess and dedicated mother who became internationally respected and admired as much for her beauty as for her tireless work for charities. It also features interviews with people who knew her personally and the tour finishes with a set of stunning portraits by Mario Testino. A selection of Diana's dresses, that raised a staggering $5.7 million for charitable causes when auctioned, are also on display.

Price includes return coach and entrance to the largest collection of images of Princess Diana on public display in this Anniversary year at Kensington Palace.

Bard in the churchyard

AN OPEN air performance of Measure for Measure, a comedy by William Shakespeare, in aid of Kedington Parish Church, will be presented by the Outspoken Theatre Company on Church Field Meadow next Friday at 7.30pm. Tickets are £5 at the door or from the post office in advance. Accompanied children under 14 are free and a licensed bar will be available. Please bring chairs or cushions.

Funny views

IVOR Dembina brings his own brand of north London Jewish humour to the Portland Arms' comedy night in Cambridge next Friday. Tackling everything from fetishism to Israel and Palestine, he's always ready to look at tricky subjects from his own peculiar viewpoint. Support comes from Kevin Shepherd and Julian Deane, with Liam Speirs compeering. Tickets are £7 on the door or £5 in advance from the venue, and doors open at 8pm.

Lach's visit

LACH, founder member of the New York anti-folk scene, will be at the Portland Arms in Cambridge on Monday. Cited as inspiration to the likes of Beck, The Moldy Peaches and Regina Spektor, he was described by the New York Times as "a Manhattan institution". Admission is £5 and doors open at 8pm.

Early music to ring out from the chapel

THE annual Cambridge Early Music Summer Schools series sees a performance of baroque harpsichord music this weekend. On Saturday, the series continues at Trinity College Chapel with Douglas Hollick performing a programme entitled The Baroque Avante-Garde on harpsichord and organ, featuring works by Buxtehude, Frescobaldi and Rossi. The concert starts at 7.30pm.

The following day at 4pm, Mark Caudle on bass viola and violoncello will be joined by Elizabeth Kenny on early stringed instrument, the theorbo, at Little St Mary's Church.

The series continues throughout August with performances of Handel, Scarlatti and Bakfark performed on period instruments. For a full programme line up and ticket details visit www.cemss.org

■ In Grow Your Own (PG), showing next Wednesday at 7.45pm and Friday, August 3, at 2pm, an asylum-seeker is given an allotment to help rehabilitate his traumatised father. The family are met with suspicion at first by the people who have passionately worked the gardens for years, but eventually are accepted into a diverse community united by their love of making things grow.

■ It's your last chance to see Johnny Depp's comic turn in Pirates of the Caribbean: At World's End (12A), on Friday at 10.30am and 7.45pm.

■ Shrek the Third (U) is showing on Friday, August 3, at 11am and 7.45pm. Shrek and Fiona married in Shrek 2, never intending to inherit the throne of Far, Far Away. So it's panic stations when Fiona's father, King Harold, develops a fatal illness, causing Shrek, Donkey and Puss 'n' Boots to set out on a quest to find Artie, the proper heir, who has rejected kingship. Can they turn him from a snotty, rebellious punk into a grateful prince? Go along to find out.

■ There's more fun for the family lined up for next Thursday at 11am when Krazy Kat Theatre present Growing, Growing . . . Gone. Following on from their highly successful performance last summer with The Very Magic Flute, they return to Haverhill with The Story of Jack and the Beanstalk. Suitable for children aged three to seven, and their families, this performance features British sign language and lasts for 55 minutes with no interval.

Space-age twist on Bard

IT WAS The Tempest – but not as we know it. They were rocking in the aisles at Castle Manor Business and Enterprise College last week when pupils staged Bob Charlton's Return to the Forbidden Planet, described as Shakespeare's forgotten rock 'n' roll masterpiece. What the Bard would have made of it is debatable, but the packed audience were in no doubt about the quality of the action-packed space spectacle before them. It was 12 years since the school staged its last full-scale production, when current drama teacher and director of this show, Steve Powter, was still a pupil and gave a memorable performance as the bus driver in Willie Rushton's Our Day Out. It was certainly worth the wait and I only hope it is not so long before the next one. Another ex-pupil, Ryan Lester, is now music teacher at Castle Manor and he led an impressive band of musicians, most notably talented drummer Steven Marsh and guitarist Laura Coles.

Return to the Forbidden Planet Review by Jo Deeks

Stewart White, of BBC Look East, added a nice touch by recording the part of the newsreader explaining the action in Shakespearean language especially for the show.

As someone who managed to gain an A-level in English, despite reading only four of the six Shakespeare plays allocated, I can relate to this modern method of teaching the classics.

Setting The Tempest on board a spaceship dodging meteorites, with Prospero as a mad scientist, is quite a test of the imagination in itself. And adding some truly classic rock songs may seem like really pushing your luck.

So could these likeable, cheeky kids pull it off? Could they really do justice to some of my absolute favourite songs, written long before they were born, and still keep faith with the Shakespearean theme? Thankfully the answer to all these questions was a resounding 'yes'.

Pupils did not murder a single note and displayed an amazing range of talent. The show highlighted the enduring relevance of Shakespearean themes. It was hard to single out individuals from a sound cast, but Dale Bennett was in fine voice, along with Joe Craig, Catherine Darkins and Nichola Fulton, and Steven's Roach's silver sprayed roller-skating robot was particularly good. Castle Manor should be proud of the talent it has produced. Simon Cowell eat your heart out!

The Quality Hotel BRIGHTON

This extraordinary seaside city is an amazing holiday resort with its cosmopolitan air, feverish nightlife and exciting mix of fashion, antiques, cafes and bars. On every street, there is something different and you will find plenty to do each day. There are graceful squares with Regency town houses, sweeping lawns and neat gardens and of course an expansive beach, crowned by the Victorian Palace Pier.

Spend an afternoon on the new look beachfront and broadwalk with its artist's quarter where you can buy one off individual pieces and then go to the fishing Museum where you can see rare archive film of bathers at the turn of the century. Alternatively, take the Volk's Electric Railway (which is England's oldest) along Madeira Drive to the Marina and admire the boats. The Quality is a bright modern hotel ideally located in the centre of Brighton with easy access to all the facilities and seafront.

We include two half-day excursions on this tour.

Comprehensive insurance is available if required at £14.50 per person and your money is safe and fully protected in compliance with EEC laws on package tours.

YOUR GUIDE TO MOVING HOME

1 Moving home can be a complicated business and, in the hectic run to the big day, it is all too easy to forget something vital. The Property News offers their readers this handy checklist that should help avoid major pitfalls. We suggest you tick off the items as you deal with them...

WITH FOUR WEEKS TO GO:

- ☐ Get estimates from removal companies, checking that comprehensive insurance cover is available against damage or loss. Is there a packing and unpacking service? Confirm the date of your move with the firm you have chosen.
- ☐ Check on your home contents insurance policies to ensure that you are covered for the move, and covered at your new address.
- ☐ Make arrangements for your gas and electricity meters (plus water meters where relevant) to be read and all your appliances to be disconnected on the day of your move.
- ☐ Arrange to take over gas and electricity at your new address, and make sure that all appliances will be properly fitted, plumbed or connected.
- ☐ Notify British Telecom and ask them to make the necessary arrangements for a final account at your present address, and for taking over or installing telephone facilities at your new home.
- ☐ Arrange for change of address cards to be printed.

WITH TWO WEEKS TO GO:

- ☐ Confirm all arrangements, times etc, for meter readings, disconnections and reconnections, with authorities and with your buyer and seller.
- ☐ Make sure you have a good stock of packing materials, including sturdy boxes and plenty of string and sticky tape.
- ☐ Begin to throw out unwanted items from attics, wardrobes. What you really don't want you may as well dump now, or send to charity. It's a great time for a good sort out!

WITH ONE WEEK TO GO:

- ☐ Send off change of address cards.
- ☐ Arrange and pay for automatic redirection of your mail by the Post Office.
- ☐ Cancel and pay up accounts for routine delivery services such as milk, groceries, fuel and your Cambridge Evening News. Re-organise these deliveries for your new address.
- ☐ Defrost refrigerators in preparation for move and, if you are moving a freezer and its contents, turn it up to maximum for a couple of days before you move.

WITH ONE DAY TO GO:

- ☐ Complete your packing except for those items you are likely to need overnight, and prepare a picnic for moving day.
- ☐ Have a large enough cash 'float' available to deal with unexpected expenses, and make sure you have collected documents and valuables together in a safe place.
- ☐ Cover carpets which are being left behind, so as to minimise damage during furniture removal.
- ☐ Check through previous lists to make sure nothing has been overlooked, then enjoy a worry-free early night!

2 ON MOVING DAY:

- ☐ Strip beds and pack bedding and nightclothes.
- ☐ Pack items for washing/toiletries.
- ☐ Take down curtains.
- ☐ Take up rugs, carpets, floor coverings, as required.
- ☐ Dismantle any light fittings etc., not included in the sale.
- ☐ Turn off electric appliances.
- ☐ Disconnect cooker.
- ☐ Turn off boiler/central heating.
- ☐ Turn off water.
- ☐ Read gas meter.
- ☐ Read electricity meter.
- ☐ Secure all windows.
- ☐ Lock all doors.
- ☐ Leave key as arranged with new owners.
- ☐ On arrival at your new home, unpack slowly and methodically so that you can check for loss or damage.

3 EXTRA HINTS FOR A SMOOTH MOVE...

WHO TO NOTIFY:

- ☐ Banks.
- ☐ Building Societies.
- ☐ Credit companies.
- ☐ Insurance companies.
- ☐ Gas, Electricity and Water Boards.
- ☐ Telephone company.
- ☐ Local Authority (Rating Department).
- ☐ Driving Licence authorities.
- ☐ Inland Revenue.
- ☐ Store cards and accounts.
- ☐ Other lease, hire or rental companies.
- ☐ Employer.
- ☐ Doctor.
- ☐ Dentist.
- ☐ Schools.
- ☐ Professional Bodies/Trade Unions.
- ☐ Motoring organisations.
- ☐ Newsagent.
- ☐ Friends and relatives.

Buyers warned about cars caught in floods

BUYERS of used cars are being warned to consider the possible damage caused by recent flash floods before parting with cash for their next set of bargain wheels.

There are fears that a problem which is widespread in the United States and Australia is appearing in the UK as more vehicles are come on the open market after suffering serious weather-related damage.

Prior to the recent torrential rain and floods, reports of storm damage to British cars were on target to hit a six-year high. In the first three months of this year some insurance companies received around three times as many reports of storm-damaged vehicles as they did for the whole of the previous 12 months.

Now, as insurance companies count the cost of the last few weeks, those figures look set to rise to an all-time record.

Vehicle safety experts fear that this higher number of storm-damaged cars will lead to unscrupulous individuals attempting to pass off damaged vehicles as all right.

"After Hurricane Katrina flood-damaged cars started appearing back on the US market at twice their usual rate," said Roger Powell, general manager of mycarcheck.com, the vehicle history-checking website.

"In the UK incidents like the severe flooding we have seen recently might be few and far between but if the scientists are right this kind of occurrence will become more common.

"Such cars may look fine at first glance, but in many cases the safety and electronic systems can be compromised."

Torrential rain in recent weeks led to flash floods which closed many roads and forced motorists to abandon their vehicles to the rising waters.

Many vehicles which are damaged by flood waters, falling trees and windswept debris are repairable even though insurance companies may have written them off as uneconomical to fix.

However, problems arise when the repairs are not carried out properly or the seller wants to hide the fact the car has been damaged in order to negotiate a better price.

"After a major natural weather event such as we are experiencing in the UK at the moment lots of affected cars will begin showing up for sale all over the country," added Powell.

technology to thrill the driver.

The new car can count on an extremely low weight-to-power ratio of just 2.45kg per hp thanks to a low dry weight of just 1,250 kg - 100 kg less than the F430 - and to the naturally-aspirated 4,308cc V8's 510bhp at 8,500rpm.

Superb performance on and off the track is assured by a series of cutting-edge solutions. There is the latest F1 software - F1 Superfast - which reduces gearchange times to just 60 milliseconds, and new traction control which, for the first time, combines the E-Diff electronic differential and the F1-Trac traction and stability control in a single integrated system.

The 430 Scuderia will be officially unveiled by Michael Schumacher at the IAA Motor Show in Frankfurt in September.

■ SORTING IT... rattles are a nuisance.

Sort that rattle out quickly!

GARAGES and dealers are often unable to pinpoint infuriating noises.

It has been revealed that more than half of car owners have experienced an annoying rattle or vibration in their car at some time.

A survey commissioned by the makers of RattleBuster, a revolutionary new car tool designed to pinpoint annoying interior car noises, found that 60 per cent of the motorists questioned have heard sounds emanating from their cars, and a vast majority said they found it irritating or, more worryingly, distracting.

Most (80 per cent) of the drivers who took their car to the garage or dealer to fix the problem found mechanics had difficulty locating the noise and nearly 70 per cent had to part with their hard-earned cash for the consultation.

A number of common factors can cause the disturbance, such as plastic panels expanding in the heat of the sun and rubbing against other car trim, loose fittings in the interior and badly-fitted after-market accessories such as phone kits are common offenders.

It doesn't matter if the car is new or old, expensive or inexpensive, drivers find it teeth-grindingly irritating to be forced to listen to a non-stop jarring noise.

Therefore it was no surprise that more than 98 per cent of respondents were interested in a product that assists them to find the source of the noise quickly and easily.

RattleBuster takes the form of an audio CD comprised of five Power-Tones (each four minutes in length) developed in a professional studio and comes with an easy to follow instruction manual.

Each tone mimics a different type of road vibration and is played in a stationary car with its engine off, avoiding the traditional "Drive and try to stay alive" approach.

The driver is then free to move around the vehicle enabling them to listen for and pin-point the rattle, vibration or dashboard buzz.

By altering the exact amount of vibration generated, using the bass, volume and fade controls on the CD player, the vibration can be induced and located.

Stuart Wright, director of RattleBuster said: "Not only are car noises aggravating but they can be difficult to locate, even by professionals.

"Rattlebuster allows drivers to find the source of the problem before they take it to a professional to be fixed, thus avoiding the expensive hourly rates charged by garages today. "Forget £70 per hour+ VAT!", try £9.95 for RattleBuster"

"It's a simple, safe and affordable solution to a problem which affects most of us at one point or another."

IFF is a leading creator and manufacturer of flavours and fragrances used in a wide variety of consumer products - from fine fragrances to beverages, with sales, manufacturing and creative facilities in 31 countries worldwide. For more information, please visit www.iff.com.

SENSORY & CONSUMER INSIGHTS (SCI) ASSOCIATE

An opportunity has arisen for a SCI Associate to join our team. The successful candidate will be responsible for co-ordinating, running and executing research via internal and external consumer panels and analysing and interpreting the results, and will play a full role in sensory evaluation and consumer research in support of flavour projects.

Key areas of responsibility include: organising internal consumer tests, data collection and statistical analysis, report writing and database maintenance.

We are looking for a proactive individual, who has relevant experience working within a sensory and consumer research or quality control department. Applicants should have excellent communication and problem solving skills with a strong working knowledge of Microsoft Office packages including Excel, Word & PowerPoint – knowledge of FIZZ (statistical software) would be an advantage. The ability to prioritise work load, work well in a team environment coupled with a high level of motivation driven by achieving results will be essential for this role. In return we offer a competitive salary and benefits package.

ACCOUNTS PAYABLE ASSISTANT

The above vacancy will be created in our Accounts Department in October this year.

Reporting to the Accounts Payable Supervisor, the role encompasses the processing and payment of supplier invoices, dealing with queries and other general office duties.

The role is a challenging one with a heavy workload and tight deadlines, though this is compensated by a dynamic and supportive environment.

We are looking for a confident yet co-operative team player who is self motivated and results orientated. You should already be able to prove your literacy and numeracy and be competent in the use of IT systems ideally within an accounts environment though training will be provided. Experience in Accounts Payable is particularly welcome.

In return we offer the opportunity to join the accounts department of a major multinational company.

This position will initially be for a period of 12 months.

Applications with CV should be sent to Carol Berry, IFF (GB) Ltd., Duddery Hill, Haverhill, Suffolk, CB9 8LG or e-mail carol.berry@iff.com.

Join us as a Sales Consultant and become part of one of the UK's most successful residential and commercial property developers, with a reputation for building quality homes and for providing extensive training and excellent career prospects.

Our Sales Consultants do a lot more than hand out glossy brochures. They're on-site to market our superb range of homes, negotiate with potential buyers, liaise with solicitors, banks and estate agents and promote value services. In short, they're there to close deals and make sales.

You will need to be a good team player, with a full driving licence and reliable car, prepared to work weekends and to move to new sites in the area to further your career; new homes sales experience would be preferred, but full company training will be provided. It's your enthusiasm, drive, willingness to learn and communication skills that we're interested in.

It's a great place to fulfil your potential and we offer a generous basic salary plus commission and a range of benefits – all that you need to keep you motivated!

To apply please send your CV to: Mary Timlin, Sales Director, Redrow Homes, 6 Waterside Way, The Lakes, Northampton or email recruitment@redrow.co.uk quoting reference number SMDS018.
Closing date 3rd August 2007.

Herbert Retail
in-store inspiration

Herbert Retail is a market leader in the supply of weigh, label and management information systems to the food industry.
We currently have the following vacancies:

Computer Services Technician

We require an enthusiastic and creative team player able to work on their own initiative to provide a high level of internal customer support.
This position incorporates many tasks that, collectively, are essential for the efficient day-to-day operation of the Company. Such duties include maintaining a credible "Internal Helpdesk", acting as first in line maintenance and support for computer users and IT development projects.
Weekend and Bank Holiday "On-call" cover (as part of a team of five) will be required.
The successful applicant will need a solid educational background, preferably with an HNC or NVQ, or an equivalent qualification, in a computer related subject and experience of working in a help desk environment. This, combined with a sound understanding of internet technologies, Windows 2000, 2003, XP, Microsoft Office and Exchange should equip you well to succeed in this fulfilling role.

Repair Technician

Reporting through to the Manufacturing Manager, the successful candidate will be responsible for fault finding and repairing PCB boards and electromechanical equipment in line with service requirements.
Applicants should have relevant experience of working within a technical/manufacturing/repair environment. Ideally with a HNC/D or equivalent qualification you will have the ability to diagnose and repair faults on both digital and analogue circuitry. You will be comfortable working on your own initiative under pressure. In addition, you will have high professional standards and a familiarity with PC's and networking protocols. You should also be a team player with a customer-focussed approach.
If you wish to be considered for either of these opportunities please forward your CV to the HR Department via e-mail at human.resources@herbertgroup.com or telephone us on 01440 711400 for an application form.
Closing date for applications is 3 August 2007. NO AGENCIES

Management Accountant

Up to £28,000 + Excellent Benefits Haverhill

Genzyme Corporation, a global biotechnology company with more than 9,000 employees, is dedicated to making a major positive impact on the lives of people with serious diseases. As we continue to invest in our state-of-the-art API manufacturing facility at Haverhill, we seek people who would enjoy the challenge of helping us efficiently plan our future needs and increase current efficiencies, while working to the highest standards at all times.

In this varied role, reporting to the Financial Controller, you will co-ordinate the monthly close process, and will consolidate as well as report monthly results. You will also analyse cost centre and manufacturing variances, reconcile inter-company recharges and prepare management reports, forecast manufacturing variances and be responsible for inventory accounting.

Preferably a CIMA finalist, with relevant experience in the manufacturing sector, having the ability to work to tight deadlines and under minimal supervision. You will be well organised with good communication skills and interpersonal skills and be able to use your own initiative.

In return for your commitment we offer extensive benefits, including private healthcare, final salary pension and share schemes.

Please send your CV with details of your current salary, and a covering letter, quoting reference HOS/271/FIN/CEN, to Careers.UK@genzyme.com.
Closing date: 3rd August 2007.

Grafham

Anglian Water is geographically the largest water company in the UK. We cover 27,000 square miles to deliver one billion litres of high-quality drinking water to six million people every day. Based at Grafham Water Treatment Works, our largest potable water works, this job requires a high degree of organisation and prioritisation whilst effectively managing confidential information. You will be dealing with personnel, health and safety, procurement and financial information as well as a range of other administrative support duties to ensure the smooth running of the Grafham Supply area. In addition you will administer bookings for the meeting rooms on site and liaise with contract catering staff.

You are currently in a similar administration role and looking for a new career direction in a respected company well known for its staff development and promotion possibilities. As well as sound numeracy and computer literacy skills, you'll have a good standard of education and previous experience with data handling and spreadsheet preparation.

Experience with using computer software such as SAP would be a distinct advantage. Your commitment, flexibility and forward thinking will make you a positive addition to this dedicated team.

To apply, please go to www.work-together.co.uk to make an online application. If you do not have Internet access, please send your CV to HR Service Centre, Anglian House, Ambury Road, Huntingdon, Cambs PE29 3NZ.
Closing date: 31st July 2007.

BOWLS ROUND-UP

Hadleigh loss for combined line-up

A COMBINED team from Haverhill and Grampian Foods Ladies took on their Felixstowe and Suffolk counterparts in the final of the EBA Hadleigh Cup on Sunday.

Held on the rinks of the competition founders in Hadleigh, the match consisted of three rinks of four, played over 21 ends.

Despite putting up a plucky fight, Haverhill/Grampian were defeated by two rinks to one with the Felixstowe and Suffolk outfit winning overall by 27 shots.

Scores: Margaret Thompson, Gill Bush, Mavis Newman, Jenny Morgan 20, Felixstowe & Suffolk 19; Peggy Mizon, Ethel Parkhurst, Mary Burton, Shirley Purr 11, Felixstowe & Suffolk 17; Steph Smith, Pam Seaman, Rene Ager, Dianne Freeman 11, Felixstowe & Suffolk 33.

■ HAVERHILL B won through to the next round of the Bumpstead League Cup with a hard-earned victory over the club's C team.

The match was always close, but the B string ran out overall winners by a two rink to one margin and will now meet the winners of the tie between Steeple Bumpstead and Quendon.

Scores (Haverhill B names first): Dianne Freeman, Paul Strudwick, Pryce Hardwick 16, Dennis Ruggles, Lynn Goodwin, Malcolm Page 21; Ethel Parkhurst, Tony Freeman, Steph Smith 20, Alan Atherton, Colin Allen, Mel Chumley 12; Ken Hawker, Shirley Purr, Bob Smith 24, David Driver, Ron Holmes, Morris Pledger 10.

■ DISAPPOINTINGLY, Haverhill men's team failed to return with the lion's share of the spoils from their County League trip to Mildenhall. They took only a couple of points from wins on two rinks.

Mildenhall claimed the overall bonus, winning by four points to two.

Scores: Ian Bolton, Bernie Morgan, Bob Smith 18, Mildenhall 20; Ken Hawker, Mick Jarrold, John Senior 8, Mildenhall 26; Tony Freeman, Pryce Hardwick, Mick Taberer 17, Mildenhall 14; Colin Allen, Ron Holmes, Colin Jenkins 18, Mildenhall 13.

■ HAVERHILL lost their home Federation League match with Cornard A by two rinks to one and missed the overall bonus by five shots.

Scores: Ken Hawker, Colin Jenkins, Bob Smith 27, Cornard 14; Ethel Parkhurst, Steph Smith, Paul Strudwick 18, Cornard 31; Bill Tatters, Pryce Hardwick, Peggy Mizon 18, Cornard 23.

Wonder Wes the bowling star of 'Heath's cup win

HORSEHEATH won the first major honour of the Adams Harrison Midweek League season when they defeated Lowry Engineering in the Cup final.

Batting first, Horseheath got off to a bad start, losing Gary Ellis, second ball.

However, after a poor first 10 overs, they got going with Dan Goldsmith leading the way with 37 in a total of 136 for 7 from their 20 overs.

In comparison, Lowry got off to a good start with Jon Woodgate making 40 and, at 10 overs, they had comfortable with 80 on the board.

Up stepped Wes Walker to change the match with 5 for 13 to win the cup and the Man-of-the-Match award.

In the Division One league, Lowry Engineering are closing in on the title after an eight-wicket victory over Haverhill.

Simon Youngs made 55 and Adam Dellar 35 for Haverhill in their total of 127 for 7.

But, Tom McNulty saw the champions-elect home with an unbeaten, which was aided by Andy Palmer's 52.

Earlier Lowry's Stuart Morrison had taken 3 for 23.

Long Melford are virtually safe from relegation after beating Weston Colville, whose batting continues to let them down.

Stuart Whitehart made 64 and Billy Byford 42 for the in-form Long Melford side in a total of 178 for 9. Jack Smith was the pick of the Weston bowlers with 3 for 25.

Weston then crumbled to 77 all out in just 13.3 overs and slipped to bottom of the table.

An important win for Abington over Long Melford lifted them off bottom spot.

Melford batted first and Steve Hale made 49 in 115 for 8 with Abington's Matt Thomas taking 3 for 23.

In reply, Thomas showed his value to the team with the bat, making 55, to see his team home, along with Dave Pimblett (28 not out).

In Division Two, Helions Bumpstead fell just short of the Gestingthorpe total of 124 for five, which included 42 from Darcy Bradmore.

■ IN THE RUNS... Dan Goldsmith, who top-scored for Horseheath in their League Cup final triumph.

Highpoint had a comfortable win at Gestingthorpe II in Division 3A.

Replying to the home side's 75 for 6, Highpoint powered home for the loss of one wicket with Jason Clayden hitting 33 not out and Rob Walsh making 32.

Gestingthorpe also lost to Hondon for whom everyone chipped in with a few runs in a respectable 134 for 5.

In reply Gestingthorpe's Nicky Stovell top scored with an unbeaten 53, but without support, his team fell well short on 103 for 2.

Hundon completed a good week this time with a comprehensive win over Wrattling Lions.

Colin Walters (56 not out) and Rupert Melville-Ross (42) set the platform for Hundon's 126 for 8. Wrattling's Kerry Ewens took 4-37. The Lions then collapsed to 77 all out.

The much-awaited clash of the top two saw Great Yeldham defeat Clare by six runs.

Matt Hoadley, of Yeldham, and James Smith, of Clare, both made 31 runs.

Division 3 B saw a welcome win for Lowry Engineering II over Castle Manor.

Ernie Collins (60) and Chris Palmer (30) led the way in Lowry's 119 for 3 in reply to Manor's 115 for 7.

The victory lifted Lowry off the foot of the table.

Thurlow clinched promotion with a comfortable win over Mill Green.

Keith Donno scored 42 not out and Ben Piper 29 for the divisional winners in their 100 for 5. Green could only amass 75 for 3 in reply.

FOOTBALL

Exciting times in prospect for ambitious Clare

CLARE Town Football Club recently hosted their annual presentation evening at The Swan in the town.

More than 30 players enjoyed a sit down meal before presentations were made to players, who had achieved excellence over the previous season.

Highlights included Steve Bastiani being presented with the players' player-of-the-year award by the first team manager, David Dickson, and James Warden receiving the club's young player-of-the-year trophy.

The successful evening sets the club up nicely for an historic season ahead. Town have been established for more than 120 years, and recent developments that have occurred will ensure that they move forward for years to come.

Thanks to some magnificent efforts from some individuals in Clare, the club are on the verge of building a new changing facility and, to develop for the generation ahead, two youth teams have been given the go-ahead to enter a league for the coming season.

The adult team have also been given the green light to enter the Essex and Suffolk Border League, while maintaining one team in the Halstead Treadfirst League. The club are also on the verge of announcing an exciting three-year sponsorship deal with a major international company that will secure new football kits for both teams and training tops.

With these exciting developments, the club appears to have a bright future.

If any new players are interested in joining the club, training has now begun and will continue every Tuesday and Thursday evening throughout the rest of the summer.

BOWLS

■ SILVERWARE ON DISPLAY . . . some of the local winners with the trophies they picked up during the North Essex County EBF championships at Haverhill's Manor Road rinks over the weekend. CP

Top honours for Haverhill

THE English Bowls Federation's north Essex county finals took place at the Manor Road rinks in Haverhill over the weekend, with local bowlers prominent throughout the event.

Friday morning saw Tracy Taylor (Grampian) defeat Steph Smith (Haverhill) by 21 shots to 19 in the secretaries' singles and Bridget King (Cornard) defeated Margaret Thompson (Grampian) 21-18 in the ladies two-wood singles.

Both matches were completed in the pouring rain. County ladies' president Grace Cutts congratulated all the players for braving the elements and wished the winners success at Skegness National Finals in August.

Saturday and Sunday's games were blessed with better weather and the competitions were completed before Saturday's late afternoon deluge again swept the greens.

■ PAUSE FOR THOUGHT . . . a tense moment during the county finals at Haverhill. CP.

Presidents Bob Smith and Cutts commended all the competitors in having reached the finals and hoped that a late spell of good weather would be prevalent during the national championships.

Smith said the standard of bowling was incredibly high throughout the whole weekend, and there was no reason for the county not to produce some national champion later in the year.

Results of finals involving players from the Haverhill area:

Ladies two-wood singles: B King (Cornard) 21, M Thompson (Grampian) 14.
Ladies four-wood singles: M Cotton (Sudbury) 21, M Thompson (Grampian) 9.
Ladies' secretaries' singles: T Taylor (Grampian) 21, S Smith (Haverhill) 19.
Ladies' pairs: B King & V Noy (Cornard) 20, E Parkhurst & S Smith (Haverhill) 10.
Ladies' senior pairs: M Snook & C Hill (Boxford) 19, P Mizon & M Ager (Haverhill) 13.

Ladies' two-wood triples: B King, V Noy & A Diggins (Boxford) 20, T Taylor, G Bush & M Thompson (Grampian) 19.

Ladies' three-wood triples: S Smith, E Parkhurst & S Purr (Haverhill) 18, B King, V Noy & S Moore (Cornard) 10.

Men's two-wood singles: L Blackham (Boxford) 21, S Botten (Haverhill) 19.

Men's four-wood singles: S Botten (Haverhill) 21, P Crisp (Cornard) 16.

Men's U25 singles: L Botten (Haverhill) 22, A Phillips (Sudbury) 10.

Men's pairs: S Botten & L Botten (Haverhill) 18, P Crisp & J Brooks (Cornard) 9.
